

THE DURRELLS RETURN TO CORFU SUNDAYS AT 8PM ON ITV

& THE REAL GREEK CHEFS ARE COOKING ONE OF THE MOST CLASSIC CORFU DISHES, BEEF SOFRITO, AVAILABLE EVERY SUNDAY.

In celebration of The Durrells being back for a second series, every Sunday at The Real Greek restaurants, you can order traditional Greek Beef Sofrito, a recipe straight from the Island of Corfu. It's an incredibly tasty traditional dish of tender, melt-in-the-mouth beef with a delicious, intense garlic and vinegar based sauce. Served with chips. Available every Sunday for £7.50. Subject to availability.

In the new series, money is still tight and Louisa Durrell (BAFTA nominated Keeley Hawes) finds herself on the wrong side of the family's new landlady, Vasilia, when she gets behind on paying the rent. It feels like Vasilia has a personal grudge towards Louisa, but why would that be? The family brainstorm ideas to make some extra cash and they decide to grow food at home to sell at the market. Theo tries to teach Leslie bee-keeping so he can make honey and Gerry learns to milk goats. Spiros is also on hand to offer support, but can they make a success of their new business venture?
